Thank you for your order!

Bauer's Market can no longer ship two varieties of apples in the same box. We want the recipient of these apples to receive a high quality product and mixing different apples within the same box may cause some possible bruising because of the size differences between varieties of apples.

UPS SHIPPING AND HANDLING

UPS shipment starts approximately early October and runs until approximately early December with the exception of Thanksgiving week. Orders received by noon on Thursday of each week will be shipped the following Monday weather permitting.

PRICES GOOD WHILE SUPPLIES LAST.
